

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) Under-development and lack of socio-economic justice are among the main factors that give rise to the spread of naxalism in some parts of the country.

(b) to (d) The Government have been pursuing a twin approach to address the menace of naxalism: to take effective and sustained police action against naxal groups and their infrastructure and to ensure accelerated socio-economic development in the naxal affected areas. The naxal affected States have been asked to set up special delivery mechanisms and encourage people centric development programmes in the affected areas.
